

Beyond Duty of Care 2019: Mental Health & Wellness in Corporate Travel

Presented by:

10th July 2019
The Royal Society, London

Final Programme

8:30 - 9:15	Breakfast Registration
9:15 - 9:30	Conference Welcome
9:30 - 10:00	What you Need to Know to Survive, Thrive and Get More out of Business Travel Presenter: Dr Lucy Rattrie – CPsychol, Ph.D.
10:00 - 10:30	Why Did you Ask the Question? What's the Worst That Can Happen... and Everything you Didn't Think About! Presenter: Dave Cope, Group Crisis Manager, Vodafone Group Development Director
10:30 - 11:00	Mental Health Incident Planning and Psychological Trauma Support Presenter: Charlotte Copeland, Managing Director, Safehaven Trauma
11:00 - 11:30	Morning Break
11:30 - 12:30	Influencing the Conversation: How to Articulate the Importance of Mental Health Within the Corporate Travel Space Presenter: Dr Anthony Renshaw, Medical Director, International SOS
12:30 - 13:15	How Technology is Changing the Travel Safety Industry: Using Technology to Bring Travel Safety to the 21st Century Presenters: Stuart Andreson, CEO, eTravelSafety & James Barton, CTO, eTravelSafety
13:15 - 14:15	Lunch
14:15 - 15:00	Expert Panel: Best Practice for Travel Managers: A Practical Discussion for Adding Wellbeing into your Travel Programme Panel Chair: Nicola Lomas
15:00 - 15:30	The Challenges of Wellbeing in a Global Workplace: Integration is Everything Presenter: Annekatrin Madlung, Managing Director, Global Recourse Ltd & Wellbeing Operations Consultant at Amnesty International & Consultant with Article 19
15:30 - 16:00	Behaviour Change Presenter: Jonti Dalal-Small, Travel Sector Expert in Behavioural Science
16:00 - 17:00	Networking Drinks

www.travelriskmedia.co.uk

Medical Assistance Partner

Travel Partner

Technology and Travel Safety Partner

